Dear Mr. Barton:

Thanks very much for your letter of 26 December 1947.
I have since talked to [] on the telephone and hope that he will pay us a visit in the near future.

Please rest assured that we were more than glad to render the service on the particular Saturday night that you mention, and do not hesitate at any time whatsoever
to call upon us for any possible service within our capabilities.

Sincerely yours,

L. K. WHITE
